The Zonta Club of Charles County announces the theme of its 2014 Zonta Zing;
"This Joint is Jumpin'"

(Waldorf, MD – September 15, 2014) "This joint is jumpin'!" That's what you will hear when you enter the Jaycees Hall in Waldorf, MD Friday, October 24th at 7 pm for the 2014 Zonta Zing. The Zing is known as an annual fall event encompassing music, food, silent auction and dancing with differing themes. This year the Zonta Club of Charles County brings to you a 1920's themed costume dinner with theatrical fun, gambling, a jazz band, DJ, occasional raids, and arrests with chances to bribe your way out of jail. Secret passwords will be given and must be presented at the time of entry. Costumes are encouraged.

Tickets for the four hour event are $60 per person and can be purchased from any Zonta Club of Charles County member or by emailing zontazing@yahoo.com. The speakeasy event will resemble the prohibition period at which time the sale, manufacture and transportation of alcohol was illegal within the United States, yet could be found in illegal drinking establishments. The 1920's "This joint is jumpin'" themed event will be held as a fundraiser to benefit Zonta Club of Charles County's initiatives to advance the status of women at home and worldwide.

Don't miss out on being a part of this spectacularly fun event. There are many opportunities for community involvements. Local businesses interested in marketing to people from all over the Southern Maryland region can sponsor the event, provide silent auction items or door prizes. For details on the auction or other event related question, email zontazing@yahoo.com.
